

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

THE NOCO COMPANY
 30339 DIAMOND PARKWAY, #102
 GLENWILLOW OH 44139
 Plaintiff, vs.
OVERLOADED MOBILE
 3903 PORTAGE AVE, #213 STE. C
 SOUTH BEND, IN 46628-6192
 Defendant.

COMPLAINT
(JURY DEMAND ENDORSED HEREIN)

Plaintiff The NOCO Company (“Plaintiff”) by and through counsel, and for its Complaint against defendant Overloaded Mobile (“Defendant”), states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Defendant is engaged in the unauthorized sale of products distributed by Plaintiff.

These unauthorized sales are illegal and have harmed and will continue to harm Plaintiff.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff is a wholesaler and retailer of battery chargers, portable power devices, and related battery products and accessories (collectively, the “Products”).

3. Defendant sells the Products on various websites without the authority or consent of Plaintiff.

JURISDICTION/VENUE

4. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

5. Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 2307.382, this court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because defendant has caused tortious injury in the state of Ohio.

6. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2).

BACKGROUND

Plaintiff's Business

7. Plaintiff sells the Products on its website (<https://no.co/>) to wholesalers and authorized resellers and through online stores such as Amazon.

8. When Plaintiff sells to wholesalers or authorized resellers it enters into contracts with such sellers ("Reseller Agreements").

9. Resellers may only sell the Products pursuant to a Reseller Agreement or some other arrangement with Plaintiff.

10. Plaintiff uses Reseller Agreements in order to promote fair competition between resellers and to protect its brand, its goodwill and its valuable intellectual property, including the registered trademarks NOCO® and NOCO GENIUS® (the "Trademarks").

11. The Reseller Agreements include a Minimum Advertised Price Policy (the "MAP Policy"), which prohibits resellers from advertising the Products below the minimum price levels set forth in Section 7 of the MAP Policy (the "MAP Price"). The MAP Policy is attached as Exhibit A.

12. Certain Reseller Agreements also limit reseller's use of the Trademarks to limit brand dilution and confusion as to the origin of the Products. An example of such an agreement is attached as Exhibit B.

13. Certain Reseller Agreements only permit sales of the Products to retail consumers and expressly prohibit bulk sales or sales to wholesalers. See Exh. B.

Defendant begins selling the Products without Authorization

14. At least since the beginning of 2017, Plaintiff has been aware that Defendant was selling the Products without authorization and without Plaintiff's consent.

15. Defendant advertises the Products below the MAP Price, and in violation of the MAP Policy.

16. Defendant sells the Products on Amazon.com.

17. Upon information and belief, Defendant also sells the Products on third-party websites other than Amazon.com.

18. Upon information and belief, Defendant purchases the Products from wholesalers or authorized resellers.

19. Upon information and belief, the wholesalers and authorized resellers from which Defendant purchases the Products have Reseller Agreements with Plaintiff, which contain the MAP Policy and the prohibition against bulk sales.

20. Upon information and belief, Defendant is inducing wholesalers and authorized resellers to advertise the Products below the MAP Price.

21. Upon information and belief, Defendant induces wholesalers and authorized resellers to sell the Products to Defendant in bulk.

22. On May 15, 2017, undersigned counsel sent a letter informing Defendant that it was selling the Products without authorization and that such sales violated Plaintiff's rights in the Trademarks (the "May 15 Letter").

23. The May 15 Letter also informed Defendant of the MAP Policy and that Defendant's sales practices violated the MAP Policy.

24. The May 15 letter requested that Defendant cease such conduct by May 25, 2017.

25. Upon information and belief, as of the date of this filing, Defendant continues to engage in such conduct.

Count One
Declaratory Judgement/Injunctive Relief

26. Plaintiff hereby incorporates each and every preceding paragraph as if fully restated herein.

27. An actual and justiciable controversy exists between Plaintiff and Defendant related to whether Defendant has the right to sell the Products without Plaintiff's consent; and if yes, whether Defendant has the right to advertise the Products below the MAP Price.

28. The Court, pursuant to R.C. §2721.03 and Civ. R. 57, should declare that Defendant has no right or authorization to sell the Products nor the right to advertise the Products below the MAP Price, as these actions have harmed and continue to harm Plaintiff in an amount to be determined at trial.

29. Such a declaration is proper, pursuant to R.C. 2721.03 and 2721.06, because it would "terminate the controversy between the parties" and "remove an uncertainty" with respect to this issue.

30. Additionally, the Court should enjoin Defendant from any further sales of the Products.

Count Two
Unfair Competition

31. Plaintiff hereby incorporates each and every preceding paragraph as if fully restated herein.

32. Defendant's actions, including, but not limited to, its unauthorized sale of the Products, its unauthorized use of the Trademarks, and its sales practices in violation of the MAP Policy, constitute unfair competition.

33. Defendant's actions have damaged Plaintiff in the form of, inter alia, lost sales, interference with prospective business relationships, trademark infringement and trademark dilution.

34. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

Count Three
Tortious Interference with Contract

35. Plaintiff hereby incorporates each and every preceding paragraph as if fully restated herein.

36. The Reseller Agreements are valid binding contracts between Plaintiff and authorized resellers of the Products.

37. At least since the receipt of the May 15 Letter, Defendant was aware of these contracts and that such authorized resellers were bound by the MAP Policy.

38. Despite this knowledge, Defendant induced such authorized sellers to breach the Reseller Agreements by advertising the Products to Defendant below the MAP Price.

39. Additionally, Defendant induced such authorized sellers to sell the Products in bulk in direct violation of the Reseller Agreements.

40. Defendant improperly interfered with Plaintiff's contractual relationships with its authorized resellers.

41. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendant's interference, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

Count Four
Trademark Infringement (15 U.S.C. § 1114)

42. Plaintiff hereby incorporates each and every preceding paragraph as if fully restated herein.

43. Plaintiff is the owner of the Trademarks (i.e. NOCO® and NOCO GENIUS®).

44. Defendant uses the Trademarks in connection with its sale of the Products without Plaintiff's authorization or consent.

45. Defendant's use of the Trademarks is likely to cause confusion among consumers as to the source and origin of the Products.

46. Defendant was informed in the May 15 Letter that its sales of the Products infringed on Plaintiff's rights in the Trademarks.

47. Defendant's continued use of the Trademarks constitutes trademark infringement pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

48. As a result, Plaintiff has suffered damages and will continue to suffer damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

Count Five
Trademark Dilution (15 U.S.C. § 1125)

49. Plaintiff hereby incorporates each and every preceding paragraph as if fully restated herein.

50. The Trademarks are well known and distinctive within the battery and chargeable battery industry.

51. Defendant's use of the Trademarks is causing the dilution of the Trademarks by tarnishing the reputation and goodwill associated with the Trademarks in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

52. As a result, Plaintiff has suffered damage and will continue to suffer damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

Count Six
Ohio Deceptive Trade Practices (O.R.C. § 4165.02)

53. Plaintiff hereby incorporates each and every preceding paragraph as if fully restated herein.

54. Defendant's unauthorized use of the Trademarks is likely to cause confusion as to the source of the Products in violation of O.R.C. § 4165.02((A)(2).

55. Defendants unauthorized use of the Trademarks creates the misperception that Defendant and Plaintiff are affiliated, which violates O.R.C. § 4165.02((A)(3).

56. As a result, Plaintiff has suffered damages and will continue to suffer damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment as follows:

A. As to Count One, a declaratory judgment stating that Defendant is unauthorized to sell the Products and permanently enjoin Defendant from any further sales of the Products;

B. As to Count Two, award compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, but in excess of $25,000, as well as attorney fees and costs and permanently enjoin Defendant from any further sales of the Products;

C. As to Count Three, award compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, but in excess of $25,000, as well as attorney fees and costs and permanently enjoin Defendant from any further sales of the Products;

D. As to Count Four, award compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, but in excess of $25,000, as well as attorney fees and costs, and permanently enjoin Defendant from using the Trademarks;

E. As to count Five, award compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, but in excess of $25,000, as well as attorney fees and costs, and permanently enjoin Defendant from using the Trademarks; and

F. As to count Six, award compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, but in excess of $25,000, as well as attorney fees and costs, and permanently enjoin Defendant from using the Trademarks.

Respectfully submitted,
